

DPDO DARFUR SCHOOLS of PEACE Fundraising Activities

Many schools throughout the U.S. have actively supported DPDO's Schools of Peace Program. Here are some ideas for fundraising activities that have worked for them.

- Bake Sale
- Local Musicians benefit concert
- Talent Show - donate admission fees
- "Loose Change" collection in classrooms: "Dimes for Darfur"
- T-shirt sales: Designed by students or ordered from Human Intonation www.humanintonation.com
- Christmas, Hanukah Cards Sale: Designed and sold by students
- Film Screening: "Darfur Diaries" - www.darfurdiaries.org
- Panel Discussion with guest speakers/teachers, invite community
- Art Sale- students sell paintings, crafts, etc.
- Babysitters for Darfur": students donate their time babysitting and parents make donation to DPDO
- Dodgeball Competition - donate registration fees
- Snack/Ice Cream Sale during lunch
- Birthday Party - guests bring donations to Darfur in lieu of gifts
- Canvass local businesses, churches, mosques, synagogues, civil organizations to donate raffle or auction items
- Darfur "Dance-athon"
- Darfur Benefit Dinner
- Garage Sale for Darfur

For every event, one person must be designated as coordinator. For help, see DPDO's Fundraiser Planning Guide.

The most successful fundraising campaigns are those that both educate and provide ways for concerned individuals to engage in efforts that improve lives in Darfur.

Thank you for supporting DPDO's work on behalf of the families and students at Darfur Schools of Peace.
